Message from the President

A little taste of the 2017 Wednesday Night Dinners

We, the Wednesday night dinner committee, have interviewed, tasted and chosen several caterers. They will alternate throughout the year.

There will be some changes in entertainment too. We'll have some old, some new and a few surprises. We're also going to try out a couple of tables that seat more people. We'll see if they work for you. We hope the food and fun meet your expectations as you stated in the survey.

Mary Flannery, President

Wednesday Night Dinners >> Nov 16 & Dec 11

Something new for our Traditional Thanksgiving Dinner. We will be entertained by John Louis – On the Edge of Illusion – Magician. John uses dazzling illusions, incredible juggling, hilarious comedy, sometimes live animals and audience participation to enthrall his audiences. John delivers a wonderful, inspirational message that real magic is living life to the fullest. We'll be both charmed and challenged by this amazing performance. The food will be served in the Thanksgiving way. Write little notes, to be shared, about what you are Thankful for.

The December meal is always served up on Sunday. This year, the date is December 11. We will have Prime Rib Dinner, Salad and Dessert. We will be entertained by Raison D'Etre. They are a group of vocalists on guitar and they feature Sister Acts, (Boswell Sisters from the 30s; Andrew Sisters from 40s; Clooney and McGuire Sisters from the 60s.) they also sing songs from the Old West. And, I'm sure there will be a few old Christmas favorites.

This is always a wonderful time of year. We're busy with Family and Friends celebrating the Holidays and looking forward to and exciting New Year. So, while I'm at it, I wish you all a Happy, Healthy and lots of fun New Year.
